

Keto Beverage

A unique keto product developed with key nutritional composition, ideal texture and great taste.

In keto formulations, fats are king. AAK's broad product range provides functional fat and oil solutions that help make the foods that people love. The modern consumer may seek functional products that meet Ketogenic or Low-Carb and High-Fat diet guidelines to achieve a healthier lifestyle.

AAK is Making
Better Happen™

With our strength in lipid technology, we can develop tailored blends and special lipid formulations that enable us to create the base for nutritional products—like a keto product—without compromising on taste.
